

for all citizens of their nation.

52
Your friendly
Rohah

Ans 4. The poet's mother acted as a source of inspiration for the poet by changing his pain into pious strength by bowing and kneeling five times daily i.e. praying to God five times a day.

2. This story theme deals with the justice as seen in a parable, the author through this story enforces a moral lesson. The story is mainly about a & anxious king and three particular questions.

3. A Swami got success in annoying in teacher too much that he caned him. He found Mr. Samuel's act was justified for the punishment. So after the school was closed he went to the headmaster room but he could not deliver the letter of complaint to the headmaster because the headmaster had gone earlier.

4. This patriotic poem expresses the children's desire to serve their country to the best of their ability. The poem emphasizes that only a person of good moral character is fit to serve the nation. The children desire to develop the values of truthfulness, fearlessness etc. So that they can set an example.

Ans-2. 15-A

Green Enclave

Ludhiana Ludhiana

September 18, 2020

Dear Tai

I hope this letter finds you in fine fettle. Well, I am writing to you to share with you that the society where I live has started a project 'We Care' to help the less unfortunate people. As you already know we are very fast developing country, still millions of people are living below poverty line. Their financial condition is quite deplorable. Such people are present everywhere. So we decided to help them by launching this project. In this project we contribute monthly to provide for the financial educational expenses of the poor children. Financial help is also provided for illness and provisions. Now the project is going to have apartments constructed for these people as well. I have written to you to invite you to join this project also. We will identify the less fortunate people in your area and launch the project there as well. Our aim is to spread the project to entire India. Kindly write back promptly. Regards to uncle and aunt cutting coffee for 2 weeks. Definitely, I have money. If I make budget properly. The luncheon will be modest. If I shall have to spend some little less for luncheon.

Chs. VI Saturday
18 September 18, 2020
10:00 PM

Dear Diary

I am in trouble, I don't know how will I manage the budget of the entire <sup>month</sup> month. I earn barely enough to keep my body and soul together. The ~~lunch~~ lunch with the lady has made a hole in my pocket. I have no source of extra income to manage my living for the rest of the the month. I am wondering what I should do. I am planning to borrow money from my friend. I also think to take up a part time job to make up the loss given to me by that lady. I know I may have to go hurry sometimes I pray to God to give me strength in this difficult time.

It was feared that one day she would fall. But she never fell! However, one day when she was alone at home she climbed a tree, but ~~could~~ couldn't come down. She was rescued from tree top. After that she fell ill, the doctor was called, he took her temp. and advised her a bed rest for a week. Everyone felt now relieved as this would curb granny's tree climbing. Quite granny ~~to~~ feel miserable lying in beds as she missing this. She sat up on her bed and declared a tree house.

Granny called his dutiful son or ~~the~~ <sup>my</sup> foot's father and ordered him to build a house on the tree top. My father beautifully done his work and my granny was very happy.

Yours friendly
Rishdeep

(20) Saturday
18 September 2020
10:00 PM.

Dear Diary,

I am carrying these days through my evening. I have invited a lady who is an admirer of my writing, wants to meet me at Foyot's. I know it is an expensive restaurant but I know that the luncheon will not cost more than 15 francs. I hope that I shall manage it.

- (v) Tommy and Margie who were used to reading telebooks with words moving on the T.V. screen found the still words printed in the book awfully funny. The words remained on the page even when they were turned.
- (vi) The children pledge to serve his mother-land with their whole hearted love and hardwork.
- (vii) One day the poet and his family were in the town, she climbed a tree but could not come down. She was suffering from fever. The doctor checked her temp. and suggested her a bed rest for a week.

Ans. 5. #141, Subash Nagar, HMT
Pinjore

18 September 2020

Dear Saurabh

How are you? Hope you are in good strength and spirit. As you know, <sup>small</sup> my Grandma is 'genius' as she could climb any type of trees easily. She learnt it from her brother when she was at the age of 'six' and she had been climbing trees since then. As she grew old. As she grew old, she was advised not to climb trees as it looked disgraceful, however, she did not pay heed to this advice.

12/9/2020

Name - Balhdeep Singh Khokhar

Group - Brilliant

Class - VIIIth

Roll no - 20

(ENGLISH)

Ans-1

MEDIA IMPACT ON TEENAGERS

Media has a quite deep impact on Teenagers. This impact has both good and bad sides. Social media and networking sites such as facebook and Twitter have become source of major distraction for students. Young boys and girls seem to have become inordinately addicted to these sites. They are thoughtlessly and mindlessly wasting their time on these sites. Wise people say time well utilized is time well spent, but the youth of today is only and only wasting time on chatting, messaging, uploading photographs and modifying profiles. The smart phones and 4G connections have made the situation worse. Accessing such sites has become so easy that young boys and girls are using these sites almost everywhere and almost all the times. Similarly they wait for their favourite T.V programmes with such intense longing.

Ques 3 (ii) The bearded man who came running from woods in severely injured condition was the king's enemy, who came to take revenge from him for his brother's execution. He was intended to kill the king, but the king's bodyguard recognised him and therefore wounded.